

TOEIC PREPARATION CLASSES

We are an ETS authorised test centre. This means you can take the TOEIC Listening and Reading exam at our offices or in your company training facilities. We would need to ensure that your training facilities met the examination requirements for the TOEIC.

▪ About the TOEIC Listening and Reading Test

The Listening and Reading test offers a common standard of measurement for comparing the language skills of current and potential employees. Test content reflects real-world tasks and provides you with the information you need to easily:

- ✓ Demonstrate your Business English level to employers;
- ✓ Develop the 'day to day' Business English you need for your work;
- ✓ Recruit, place and promote the most qualified employees.

▪ About our TOEIC Preparation classes

- ✓ We focus in particular on preparing you for the reading and listening examination. This covers all the Business English vocabulary you need to use at work and also allows for a comprehensive revision of your English grammar.
- ✓ We ensure you are given the support you need to achieve the highest result possible. We give you access to multiple practice test questions and send weekly TOEIC vocabulary sheets for further revision. To find out how the TOEIC exam result maps against the CEFR levels please see below:
